FRANKLIN AGAIN JABS THE KING

Wants to Know if Paid Press Agent of Party Is to Boost Party or Governor's Clique

WHEN it comes to paying out money for the support of a press bureau, William M. Franklin, clerk of the supreme court of the State of Oklahoma, wants to know what is to be the quid pro quo.

Franklin has written a letter to the Democratic press agent, whose salary is paid by an assessment made upon the state officials and employees making inquiries along this line, doubtless for the purpose of ascertaining whether the press agent is to boost the governor and his select clique, or is to give information to the public that will be of real value.

"None of the stuff written by the press agent has ever come into my hands," he said this morning, "but I suppose it is being sent out to some persons, for I saw a batch of it in the governor's office one day."

It may be inferred that the supreme court clerk is not going to pay an assessment of one per cent of his salary to maintain the press bureau if it is to be used in giving publicity to the governor's attacks against other departments of the state government. In this connection, it is said that a number of others who are ranked among the faithful have destined to respond to the call for financial assistance.

It is said the press agency idea is one of the governor's projects presented by him back in 1908, when he got a vote of that kind for Duke Statling of Duran. At that time, it is said, the assessment ranged from one to three per cent of the salaries paid to state officers and employees.

At the Theatres

THE EMPRESS

Path operate and popular numbers are included in the modest program of the Six Gossips appearing on the vaudeville bill at the Empress. The one featuring Katherine Schenck, former of Oklahoma City, is one of the most popular of the season. Mrs. Schenck has a splendid voice and is pianist and leader of the troupe.

Today Joe Welch appears in the comedy drama "Time Lock No. 776" (Rai's best famous play).

THE FOLLY

Rafferty created rather a sensation Thursday at the Folly theater by emerging unbruised within four minutes after being severely locked in a nine-foot high press burial vault. He will repeat the performance Friday and on Saturday will expose his methods. The Folly is also offering King Bagot in the mystery drama "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde"; a two-reel drama "A Social Lion"; the Amherst Weekly and a comedy, "His Egyptian Affinity."

THE LYRIC

The vaudeville offering at the Lyric for the last of this week is in a very tight vein. "The Law," a screaming farce; Blackmon and Dagon with a piano; and Burr McPherson, minstrel. The Fabre of the Roistering Blades, by Ade, will add to the good humor of the Saturday audiences while the Hearst-Selig weekly pictorial with its graphic presentations will give a somber aspect to the program.

COLCORD GARDEN

New platters nightly and a constant changing program of songs and sketches are marked characteristics of the Colcord Garden program. Six reels of pictures made off from intensely interesting dramas and exuberant comedies comprise the picture offering.

THE AUDITORIUM

The Homesteaders' Ball at the Auditorium last night was a great success. "Bird in the Hand" and "Telling Tales" will be shown tonight.

BELLE ISLE

Three single reels, "Tinker of Stubbsville," "Eleven to One" and "When Schmidt Led the Orchestra," is the excellent program that will be given to-night at the Belle Isle free movie show.

THE STRAND

The Strand presents for today a highly interesting mixed program of mirth and sentiment. On Saturday and Sunday they will present the highly sensational Michael Strogoff which is very ably presented by Jacob P. Adler.

COLE YOUNGERS

El Reno Lads Decided They Would See the World, But See Police Station Instead—Broke Plate Glass

Three youthful "bad men" were arrested by Officer Pettit this morning after they had beaten their way over from El Reno to look over Oklahoma City before starting for the west. They broke a plate glass front to a negro's place, and their wanderings ceased at the police station. Their names are Lawrence Schucker, John Strythe, and A. R. Turner.
